CHEEKY CHILIANS.

ATTEMPTED ARREST OF FRANK EGAN.

to the Minister Himself -- A Riot - . ous Outbreak Possible

at any Moment.

VALPARAISO, Dec. 23.—It is useless to onger conceal the fact that the hostile feeling against Minister Egan at Santiago is increasing. The American representative has officially called the attention of the Argentine Minister, Senor Urriburn, to the presence of Chilian police agents in the immediate vicinity of the American legation and also the attempted argest, on last Satur-day night, of Mr. Frank Egan, the American minister's son. Senor Urriburn, in his diplomatic capacity, will call a meeting of the dozen foreign numisters for the purpose of requesting the attention of the Chillan government toward the action of the municipal authorities in maintaining police surveilance of the Amer-

An additional insult was offered the American minister, Monday, in the case of one of the refugees under his protection who applied for a release upon furnishing bonds to appear when wanted by the authorities. This was recently granted to Balmaceda's minister of war. Valusquez. The government replied that the refugre must first leave the American legation, surrender himself to the Chillan authorities and submit to imprisonment. The government, after he had done these things, would consider the request, not before.

It is understood that Minister Egan has fully acquainted his government with all the facts, and that he is in rewint of full instructions as to his future ourse. The Chilian authorities strengously deny the existence of a plot to burn the American legation building, but the refugees who are in the asylum there are convinced that a plan to fire the building and mob the inmates in the panic that would ensue was seriously meditated, but whether it had official sanction or not is of course not known. Americans in Chili fear that an amicable settlement of the present con-troversy is not possible, at least so long us the United States permits Minister Egan to conduct its side of the case. So intense has the bitterness toward Egan grown that an attack on the legation by an irresponsible mob at any time would cause no surprise here. That the refugers under the American minister's protection fully realize the gravity of the situation is shown by their desire to surrender to the Chilian authorities under bond to appear for einl when called upon.

Maltreated in Valparaiso. Maltreated in Valparaiso.

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—Sailor Patrick Shields, who was maltreated in Valparaiso by the Children, arrived here on the steamship Resuccena Monday. He told a United Press reporter that while ashore at Valparaiso he with a companion was arrested by the police. He was not treated badly until it thee. He was not treated bany until it was learned that he was an American. He said when this fact became known he was cruelly beaten. He broke away from his captors and fled, but was pursued by a mounted officer who rode. im down and beat him into insensibility. Without trial he was placed upon the police boat. Through the intercession of the American consul he was released and indomnity promised tim. The Chilian officials said this would be forwarded to San Diego, but none has arrived. The officers of the teamship report no new outrages, but ay that the feeling against the Amer-

Hill Boom in Ohio That Will Not Ma-

ternalize.
Conguers, O., Dec. 32.—There is considerable excitement among democratic politicians here over an attempt to trick the Jackson club into turning the 8th of Jackson banquet into a presidential boom for David B. Hill. The chairman of the committee on invitation was given considerable latitude in inviting guests. To the surprise of the most of the club members it was announced that Hill would be invited to respond to a toast: that the club favored him for president, and that his Ohio boom would be inaugurated on the occasion of the club banquet.

So excited have members become that a special meeting has been called for to-night to protest against Hill being invited, and a resolution will be of 20 doz. Counterfeiters Captured. WATERLOO, Ill., Dec. 23.—The town authorities have made an important for marking spurious money. For several days past merchants in this city have complained of being taken in on counterfeit coin. The dollars were said to be difficult to detect, and in this way the pair succeeded in unleading a goodsized amount of the worthless metal. Monday evening the authorities of the depot, and later in the night bagged his confederate. They were taken to the marshall's office where they gave their names as David Richardson and George McCay. Sixteen dollars in counterfeit and a full kit of tools, including molds and metal, were found in their satchels The federal authorities at Springfield. Ill., were notified of their capture, and word was received to hold the men for the United States marshal. They made some resistance when captured, but were soon overpowered and placed in the town calaboose under guard. The county and town authorities are satisfled they are the men who have put so much worthless money in circulation in southern Illinois during the past few

Two Hundred Laborers Overwheims; by a Snow Storm. ROME, Dec. 22.—A fearful snow orm in the Apennines overwhelmed 200 laborers who were returning by the railway to Sulmona, in Abruzza, from Isernina, on the western slope of the mountains. The storm came with such swiftness and fury as to put a stop to all travel, and of the 200 a large numall travel, and of the 200 ber were buried beneath the tremen dons snow full.

It is believed that scores have per ished. The relief party, which has-tened to the scene upon receipt of the news as seen as the storm abated, had already, at last accounts, recovered the bodies of tifteen dead and were still actively pursning the search for the re mainder. Such an overwhelming and destructive storm has not been wit-nessed for years in that vicinity.

An Exciting Time On a Train. Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 23.—When the Burlington flyer arrived here yesterday afternoon the police had quite an ex citing time trying to secure an insane woman who had run amuck on the train and had the passengers terrified. The woman is the wife of Benj. Kochter, a Denver mail carrier, who is bound east with her. Yesterday she suddenly lost her reason, and drawing a revolver began firing. She then locked herself in a water closet, and when John Mills, the colored porter tried to get her out, she shot through he glass door and wounded him in the groin. When the police attempted to get her out she again opened fire and shattered all the glass in one end of shattered all the glass in one end of the car. She finally became quiet when informed that the police would protect her and she was locked up. Mills is not seriously injured.

Bloodshed in a Colored Church, CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 23.—An i fficer entered a colored Raptist church Monday night for the purpose of ar resting a colored man named Evans The latter was in the church with his sweetheart, and when he saw the officer coming he ran to the altar steps and drew a razor. When the officer came within reach he sprang upon him and cut him severely. The negro then fled from the church, the officer firing at him as he ran. The first shot brought him to his knees, but he struggled to his feet and escaped. The greatest excitement prevailed, but the sermon when the officer appeared, continued right along as if nothing had

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS. (First Session.)

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The senate this morning hid resumed its normal appearance fitor the obsequies of yesterday, but there was significant scantiness of attondance and an obvious disposition to bring about an early adomnwhen.

The vice-president laid before the senate

The vice-president laid before the senate a communication from the acting secretary of war, transmitting a report of the chief of engineers in response to a resolution of the senate adopted at this seasion inquiring what steps had been taken by the war department to carry out the provisions of the river and harbor bill relating to obstructions in navigable waters of the United States, and what further legislation if any was necessary. The acting secretary of war concurred with the chief of engineers that the law had not been in force a sufficient length of time to ascertain its practical essary to secure its enforcement.

Mr Manderson presented a memorial from the Minnesota commandery of the Loyal Legion, calling attention to the defenceless condition of the cities and harbors on the Seaboard, and erpressing the option "that while the new navel vessels thus for constructed and authorized by corrections are a credit to the authorized by congress are a credit to the authorized by congress are a credit to the American people, it is the sense of this com-mandary that a navy sufficient in ships and armament to command and enforce the respect due to the flag of this nation the world over should be completed at the earliest practicable moment."

Fruden was amounced with a message from the prosident.

Mr. Wolrett (by request) presented a petition from labor organizations in Colorado against permitting military bands to compete with civilian bands.

A number of new bills were then introduced.

A report of the assistant clerk in the court of claims being hid before the senate giving findings of facts and figures in some additional French spoliation cases, precipitated a brief delate on these claims.

Mr. Goskrall wanted the report referred to the committee on claims, and not to the committee committee on elains, and not to the committee on appropriations. After discussion the report was referred to the committee on claims to in-vestigate and report instead of the committee on neuromorphisms.

on approopriations.

Senator Stanford took the oath and his seat as senator reclected by the state of California.

At the suggestion of Mr. Cullon the solute at 165 p m, went into executive session. At the expiration of ten minutes the doors were received and the resolution of the house m relation to the death of Representative M. H. Ford, of Grand Rapids, Mich., being called up, the sende out of tespect to his memory adjourned until noon to-morrow.

London, Dec. 23.—Capt. Osborne vis-ited the Bank of England, Monday, and fronted, with indisputable evidence what had been pointed out to him at the bank. Mrs. Osborne saw at once that her denials and protestations of innocence would avail her nothing, shbroke down completely and confessed to her husband that she had deceived him, and that she had stolen her friend' and on every side great sympathy felt for him. He holds an unexceptio able position in society, and his recor in the army is a good one. He had the greatest confidence in the honor of his wife, and was willing to go to my lengths to prove that her character had been maligned. He was engaged to her when the accusation was first made against her. He heard of the charges, but she, of course, denied them, and so dearners his large for heart of the charges. deep was his love for her and his confidence in her integrity that he place no belief in the accusations and he married her, feeling sure that proceedings in court would establish her or tire innocence of the terrible charge of theft. How he was betrayed by the woman he honored by making his wife is now a matter of record in the court None but kind words are heard con-cerning him, but his wife is bitterly

Toleno, O., Dec. 22.—The recent disaster in the Lake Shore yards in this city, in which ten persons were cooked to death, is the cause of a bitter war between the Lake Shore and the Flint & Pere Marquette roads. The decision of the coroner in the case of the wreck has not yet been made, but suits aggregating $15,000 were commenced Saturday against the two roads by survivors who were injured. Service was made upon the Lake Shore Monday, but not a Flint & Pere Marquette official or employe could be found in the state when th sheriff tried to serve summons on that road yesterday.

It seems that Monday night every Flint & Pere Marquette ticket seller, freight or passenger engineer, conduc Not a soul in the state can be found troit. It turned an average of 26,000 Michigan Central. This is ostensible because the Flint & Perc Marquette would not sign an agreement for using the Lake Shore tracks, which was de clined by President Newell, and of which he insisted after the accident of curred. The roads have been running on a verbal agreement for twelve years, and the great baste of the Pere Marquette people to leave the state is to save that road from paying probably a Galesbung Plaindealer: Some of the Fulton county free trade papers have been lamenting the evil effects of the McKinley bill on the canning factory at Lewiston and eight interests at Canton, vet in epite of these lamentations the canning factory did a larger business the last year than ever before, were enabled to sell their goods cheaper, and are preparing for a big output next year, while a new eight factory, with a capital of $25,-000, has just been organized in Canton, and will be ready for business soon. Strange, isn't it? Does anybody believe that if the lamentations of these free ories would be started, and the canning factory would make arrangements to inresse lits business? Sensible people cannot be fooled by any such free, trade statements in the face of actual business Ex Senator John J. Ingales, of Kan sas, has written and given out for publication a beautiful encomium on Senator Plumb. Among the things he said we note the following:

Secretary Elkins, a soldier.
Here are five of the nine, all born in Ohno, and all soldiers but one. Secretary Elkins was born in Perry County, Ohno, Sept. 26, 1841; graduated in the University of Missouri in 1860, and was captain in the Seventy-seventh Missouri Volunteer Intentry in 1862-3. It is almost an Ohio administration. With John Sherman leader of the Senate, there is a still more decided Buckeye flavor in it.

TROUBLE ABOUT A CHECK.

he Experience of a Farm Hand

from Oakley at a Decatur Hank.

A young man who had been in the employ of a farmer near Oakley had an nnoying experience in Decatur this week when he was promptly arrested at torger. At his home in the country the farmer in question had made a settlement with the young man, but he had no bank checks, and so both drove to Oakley on the chilly day and went to the store of a merchant who was asked to draw up the check for about $60 due the young man. It was done, and then the farmer asked the merchant to sign his the farmer's) name to the check. He was chilly and said his bands were too stiff to write. The name was aigned by the merchant, but the writing was wholly unlike that of the farmer who had his money in the Decator bank. The same went to the bank to get his money. He resented the check, which at a glance

the paying teller discovered to be crocked and possibly a forgery. The young man was detained until Marshal Mason could be summoned. The young man protested that he was not a forger in any sense and the Oakley merchant to ascure confirmation of his explanation of his connection with the check and the manner in which it was drawn. The telephone was used and the merchant quickly straightened out the onse to the satisfaction of the bank and the marshal. Perhaps the thought never entered the head of the Oakley farmer and the merchant that the obeck, drawn as it was, would occasion any trouble. It was left to the innocent by anyone but the party having the cush or deposit at the bank is very likely to produce searching inquiry and the pres-

THE IMBODEN MARKET.

Thirty-Six Years in the Business-A Choice Display of Christmas Meats.

The Quarters on the Blocks—Make Selections of Once.

Just thirty-six years ago to-day the Decatur, and to-day the Imboden Bros.— C. M. and John G.—sons of the origins propriecor, John Imboden, are conduct South Main street at the corner of Wood street, and on this 26th anniversary they as usual celebrate the Christmas holidays by patting upon the blocks an unusually choice number of thoroughbred Hereford Devon, Polled Angus and Brown Swiss heifers and young steers-nearly all prize takers at the Fat Stock Show recently held in Chicago. The Christmas beeves were purchased from the following named parties:

From Wm. S. Van Natta, of Fowler Ind., the noted Hereford Breeder, the prize cross-bred Hereford and Susser steer, under one year old.

From John Hudson, of Mowenque, Ill the first and second prize yearling Devon steere, noither very large but both rip and thick in flesh, producing a quality of beef as choice as any ever placed upo the blocks at the Imboden market.

From Abe Bounquin, of Nokomis, Ill th three year old Brown Swiss heifer. From Hon. D. P. Keller, of Macon, five shoice two year old Polled Angus beliefs THE REPUBLICAN reporter with other called at the market this morning and had a look at the Christmas display. It is certainly one of the finest ever made by Imboden Bros. The enterprising firm always leads in supplying the public with the best meets obtainable the year round and when the holidays come they spread themselves, and pations have learned by experience that they always get the bes at Imboden's.

Bosides the excellent beef above de scribed in brief, there is on sais the usual large variety of other supplies for the table, including mutton, lamb, veal, perk, sausage, homs, etc., anything and everything usually found at a first-class mod ern market.

Those wishing rouste, steaks or outs rom the prize Christmas beef should place their orders at onco. Do not delay THE STREATOR CYCLONE.

He Enocks Out Carrol in the 43d Round and is Declared the Winner

Nearly 40,000 people were at the Olympic club at New Orleans last night to witness the great and much-talked-of mill between Billy Myer, the Streator Cyclone, and Jimmy Carroll, of Califorma. Ed Myer, Link Pope and Alf Kennedy were the seconds for Myer, and Bob Pitzsimmons, Johnnie Griffin, Arthur Gibbons and James Robertson seconds for Carroll, Prof. John Duffy was the referee. Myer weighed 13514 pounde, Carroll 1381/2. The fight was full of excitement and demonstrated that Myer had plucks endurance and surprising skill. Myer was given first blood, and in the forty third round Myer came up on the aggres sive; Carroll was wonk. Heavy exchanges followed. Carroll received heavy blows from the right on the jaw, going down and staying down fully twenty minutes. Myer was declared the winner amid great cheers. A telegram says that he fought ington met in Bloomington yesterday a fair and manly contest and deserved the victory for his gentlemanly conduct and fairness. The contest was for a purse of $4,000.
